Sisheng Chris ZHANG

//Curriculum Vitae
Oct 2026

Global professional with 10+ years of experience. Developed an independent and resilient personality. Highly practical, motivated, and innovative with a strong sense of responsibility. Enthusiastic about challenging work, with strong critical thinking, learning ability, data analysis, problem-solving, communication skills, and teamwork spirit.

//Education

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 2021 – 2026 | Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Spain | Ph.D | Law / Political Philosophy |
| | FPI Fellowship by the Spanish Ministry of Science and Innovation: "Justice, Autonomy, and Self-Employment" | | |
| 2017 – 2018 | Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Spain | Master | Political Philosophy |
| 2016 – 2017 | University of Warwick, UK | Master | Political and Legal Theory |
| 2013 – 2016 | University of Essex, UK | Bachelor | Philosophy, Politics and Economics |
| 2023 | Concordia University, Canada | Visiting Researcher | Department of Philosophy and Social Justice Centre |

//Professional Experience

2027 Q1 Full Fellow, Hoover Chair in Social and Economic Ethics Université Catholique de Louvain

- Research Focus: Normative political philosophy and economic/social ethics, working in collaboration with Prof. Yannick Vanderborght
- Duties: Will conduct short-term research at the Hoover Chair, present a research seminar paper, and participate in university seminars and academic exchanges

2021 - 2026 FPI Fellow Universitat Pompeu Fabra (UPF)

- Event Co-Organisation: Co-organised high-level international academic conferences and workshops at top-tier institutions, including the University of Oxford (2022) and Universitat Pompeu Fabra (2021, 2022).
- Public Speaking & Communication: Delivered complex research presentations to expert audiences at international conferences across Europe, including the UK, Germany, and Spain.
- International Collaboration: Conducted scientific research within the Concordia University Centre for Social Justice and Department of Philosophy, demonstrating adaptability in new global environments
- Community Building: Created and managed the UPF Law & Philosophy mailing list and convened cross-institutional academic seminars, facilitating internal communications and network growth.

2021 - 2025 Teaching Assistant Universitat Pompeu Fabra (UPF)

- Taught Courses: Assisted in "History of Political Philosophy" and "Justice and Individual Rights" with over 80 students each
- Duties: Facilitated seminars, guided discussions, graded assignments, and provided academic support for Law, and Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE) students
- Achievements: Received a teaching evaluation score of 8.8/10 and rated as "Excellent" in UPF teacher training

2022 - 2023 Research Assistant Universitat Pompeu Fabra (UPF)

- Assisted Prof. Serena Olsaretti (UPF) in "Demography, Ethics & Public Policy" (DEPP), an initiative within "Justice and the Family: An Analysis of the Normative Significance of Procreation and Parenthood in a Just Society" funded by the European Research Council
- Management of DEPP website and its contents, internal communication
- Responsible for DEPP outreaching programmes (mailing list, blog, social media)

2019 - 2020 Project Coordinator Asia-Pacific Academy of Ophthalmology (APAO)

- Event Management: Coordinated exhibitors and sponsors, organised scientific panels, and oversaw charity functions for the annual APAO Congress
- Collaboration: Worked with partner societies including the Asia-Pacific Vitreo-Retina Society, Asia-Pacific Ocular Imaging Society, and Chinese Ophthalmological Society
- Milestone Event: Contributed to the Diamond Jubilee celebration of APAO, established in 1960
- Participant Engagement: Engaged with over 15,000 participants from 75 regions and countries

2019 Summer Secretary-General Jiangxi Model United Nations (JxMUN) and ASDAN China

JxMUN is a secondary-school level Model United Nations conference initiated by the Jiangxi provincial education ministry, attracting over 200 delegates. Responsible for all aspects of the conference, including overseeing academic performance, training committee directors, organising workshops for directors, delegates, and staff

- Leadership Role: Recruited by ASDAN China for expertise in MUN and conference management
- Managed all aspects of the conference, focusing on academic performance
- Trained and oversaw committee directors
- Organised workshops for directors, delegates, and conference staff

2017 - 2019 Founder and Chief Operations Officer (P/T) Clifford Alumni (CA)

Founded and led an international 8-person team to manage alumni network operations, successfully executing multiple fundraising and networking initiatives for over 500 attendees.

2016 - 2017 Research Assistant University of Warwick

- Assisted Prof. Matthew Clayton (Warwick) and Dr. Tom Parr (Essex) in a research project on the ethics of Santa Claus
- Examined the morality of parents teaching young children about Santa Claus and similar cultural figures, particularly concerning ethical issues like deception
- Compiled research findings from two books and several academic articles
- Made a significant contribution to the project's research efforts

2015 Summer Intern Editor South Star Media Corporation, Guangdong Radio and Television (GRT)

Supported TV and film production by gathering real-time social media intelligence, ensuring content accuracy, and assisting with cross-departmental project management and budget control.

2014 Summer Director-General World Youth Economic Forum (WYEF) and ASDAN China

WYEF is a simulation of the World Economic Forum for secondary school students from all over the world. ASDAN China, Yale University, and the Global Undergraduate Economic Forum are the co-hosts of WYEF; As the Director-General for WYEF, comprehensively oversaw of all aspects of the conference which include:

- Academics: Coordinated invited scholars, updated Rules and Procedures for new delegates,
- Logistics: Defined roles, developed contingency plans, managed notifications, and handled hotel bookings,
- Delegate experiences: Monitored and responded to participant feedback;
- Led the 2014 conference in Shanghai, China, at a four-star hotel, hosting over 800 participants from around the world across 11 committees

//Campus Experience

2020 Summer Seminar Organiser & Speaker 706 Guangzhou, China

- Knowledge Translation: Organised and delivered a public seminar on distributive justice, successfully translating complex theoretical concepts into accessible content for a general audience.

2014 – 2015 Director–General University of Essex Model United Nations (MUNEx) 2015

- Rules of Procedure: Authored the 39-page MUNEx 2015 Rules of Procedures
- Committee Oversight: Monitored academic performance of 3 committees and coordinated over 60 participants
- Recruitment: Recruited and managed 6 Committee Directors and Assistant Directors
- Merchandise and Inventory: Reduced expenses by over 63% through data analysis
- Marketing: Designed marketing materials based on market research and previous experience

2010 – 2011 President The 7th Students' Union, Clifford School

- Awarded Outstanding Student Cadres of Panyu District and elected member of the Guangzhou ACE Student Union

//Skills

- Core Competencies: Full-Cycle Event Management, Public Speaking & Debating, Project Coordination, Data Analysis, Cross-Cultural Communication, Academic & Professional Research.
- Technical & Digital Tools:
  - Design & Media: Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign.
  - Development: Git, Docker.
  - Digital Management: Microsoft Office , Website Management, Mailing Lists, Social Media Outreach (WeChat, Weibo, Blog).
- Languages: Mandarin (Native), Cantonese (Native) , English (Professional) , Spanish (Elementary).